STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN REFLECTION (JOHN 2:1- 11)

By Catholic Stewardship Consultants

Today's Gospel reading from John recounts the familiar story of the wedding feast at Cana when Jesus launched His public ministry by performing His first miracle at his mother's request.

In the midst of the feast, the Blessed Mother noticed that the wine had run out and pointed out the problem to Jesus. Then, she gave the servants instructions that are equally applicable to us modern-day stewards saying, "Do whatever He tells you." Jesus gives the servants a simple and seemingly mundane task, telling them to fill some stone jars with water. They did what He told them to do. And Jesus used their obedience in the accomplishment of that simple task to perform His first miracle, turning the water into the choicest wine.

FR. ANTHONY'S STEWARDSHIP CORNER (#15 STEWARDSHIP IS COUNTERCULTURAL)

Catholicism is not a spectator sport! It is not something that, as disciples, we can do passively. The linked realities of discipleship and stewardship make up the fabric of a Christian life in which each day is lived in an intense relationship with the Lord.

As we live our lives in collaboration with God, people will notice. Our values will be different from many that are influenced by secular philosophies and the marketing of large corporations. The people that we encounter will notice, and some will react. Some will react positively, and some will react negatively. We will encourage and empower some and we will scare others. Ultimately the world will be a better place.

Following Jesus is the work of a lifetime. At every step forward, one is challenged to go further in accepting and loving God's will. Being a disciple is a total way of life and requires continuous conversion.

SUNDAY STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION (CONTINUE FROM PAGE 1)

Our Lord didn't have to include those servants in order to perform this miracle – He chose to. And today, 2,000 plus years later. He still chooses to include us in the performance of His miracles through our cooperation with him in using the gifts and talents He has given us. What a privilege! Let us take care to listen to our Blessed Mother: let's examine our lives this week to see if we really are "doing whatever He tells us," cooperating with God to make the best use of gifts He has given us for the benefit of those around us. If we all take this call seriously, He will perform miracles in our families and our parish.
