FR. ANTHONY'S STEWARDSHIP CORNER (THANK YOU)

Being your pastor is a big responsibility. Our parish is truly a gift that God has given to us all. Each one of you is a gift. As a community, we are all stewards of our gifts, collectively and individually.

We have been concentrating on the gift of time that God has given all of us. Being a good steward of time should be a priority for all of us. Thank you for this investment in our parish and in yourself.

St. John Apostle & Evangelist parish has been involved in pastoral planning. The Diocese and each parish are doing this. What a great chance to set goals and to look into the future. St. John is a good parish, but with some investment by all of us, it can be a great parish, a stewardship parish.

Fr. Anthony Roper

STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN REFLECTION (LUKE 5:1 - 11)

By Catholic Stewardship Consultants

Our readings today remind us of the great privilege we have in calling ourselves both children and disciples of the Most High God.

The First Reading from Isaiah describes a vision of the prophet in which angels surround the Lord proclaiming, "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts! All the earth is filled with his glory!" Our God invites us to such deep intimacy and friendship with Him that sometimes we can forget just how majestic and unspeakably holy He truly is.

In the Gospel passage from Luke, Jesus instructs Simon to lower his nets for a catch despite an unsuccessful night of fishing. Peter is skeptical but obeys and is amazed at the catch of fish that he makes. He kneels down before Jesus in astonishment.

This sense of awe and reverence before God should motivate us to deepen our stewardship way of life. As we contemplate the holiness of God, we come to a heightened awareness of what a privilege it is that He has chosen to include us in His work of spreading the Gospel to others through the grateful sharing of the gifts He has given us. Aware of this privilege, we will then make the words of Isaiah our own: "Here I am Lord, send me!"

"Unfurl the sails, and let God steer us where He will." – ST. BEDE THE VENERABLE

Catholic Schools Week Edition

February 5, 2022

Catholic schools have plenty to celebrate about. Providing a safe and welcoming environment, teaching respect of self, instilling the value of service to others, partnering with parents in the faith formation of their children, and offering an education that combines Catholic faith and teachings with academic excellence are amongst a few of the reasons why parents choose a Catholic education for their child in their early years.

This year's theme for Catholic Schools Week 2022 is "Catholic Schools: Faith. Excellence. Service." It is a time used to showcase what sets Catholic education apart and it is just what we did! We celebrated our own SJCP "SUPERSTARS" and welcomed new families to our parish school, shared our gratitude for our caring teachers and shared our service to our communities by donating gently used toys and even mailing out notes of "LOVE" to our military dads and seniors in the living communities.

St. John's Catholic Preschool strives to build an educational experience rooted in spiritual values and driven by academic excellence . . .
