STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN REFLECTION (LUKE 6:27 - 38)

By Catholic Stewardship Consultants

In today's Gospel, taken from the sixth chapter of Luke, Jesus offers a very challenging, seemingly impossible approach to daily life. "Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. To the person who strikes you on one cheek, offer the other one as well, and from the person who takes your cloak do not withhold even your tunic." It makes one want to say, "Seriously, Lord." And He doesn't stop there. Jesus adds, "Give to everyone who asks of you, and from the one who takes what is yours do not demand it back."

It seems so unfair! That is, unless we look at this way of life from a stewardship point of view. Then, not only does it seem doable (though challenging), but it also actually makes perfect sense.

FR. ANTHONY'S STEWARDSHIP CORNER (IT'S PERSONAL)

In previous articles, I have been exploring the forming of a personal relationship with God. You may be wondering what this looks like in your life. Well, it's personal so your relationship with God may be somewhat different than mine.

I can talk about some of the things that are basic elements of a personal relationship with God.

One of these things is your understanding of the world, God's creation, and how you fit into it.

When we consider that God created everything, including you, and has provided his creation for your use and care, then the question is; How do I respond to this fact? How do you respond to this question that is a key part of your personal relationship with God? If you respond in gratitude, then you are well along in developing and embracing a stewardship lifestyle and a personal relationship with God.

A steward understands clearly that all he has and all that he is – his very life – is a gift from God given to him from an unfathomable abundance of love. This changes everything! This means “my” cloak, “my” tunic, “my” money, and time – all of it ultimately belongs to God. He has entrusted these things to each of us in love to use for His purposes and His glory.

Does this mean we are to be passive “doormats” to anyone who wants to take advantage of us? Certainly not. Jesus explains this in the next verse of this passage when He says, “Do to others as you would have them do to you.” There is nothing wrong with loving oneself since God loves us and has made us in His own image and likeness. Jesus is simply asking that we also approach others, and the sharing of our gifts, with this same attitude. He is giving us a definition here of real love, a steward's love!

“Give something, however small, to the one in need. For it is not small to one who has nothing. Neither is small to God if we have given what we could.” – ST. GREGORY NAZIANZEN
