Respect Life: The Gospel of Life is “meant to be a precise and vigorous reaffirmation of the value of human life and its inviolability, and at the same time a pressing appeal addressed to each and every person, in the name of God: respect, protect, love and serve life, every human life! Only in this direction will you find justice, development, true freedom, peace and happiness!” (The Gospel of Life 5)

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION (LUKE 4:1 - 13)

By Deacon Romeo Ganibe

In today's Sunday gospel reading, we see Jesus alone in the desert being tempted by the devil. The devil presents a few interesting scenarios to Jesus, one that test him and tempt him at the same time. And in each scenario, Jesus is somehow able to resist and is able to stay focused on what he was born to do, stay faithful to his Father in all things. Jesus is not willing to give in to what many of us so often give in to, the need for power or prestige of

FR. ANTHONY'S STEWARDSHIP CORNER (TRUST)

We have been exploring your personal relationship with God and some of the components that may be key to that relationship.

Trust in God is a core component of one's personal relationship with God. It is not possible to develop a personal relationship with God without also developing a complete trust in God.

Trust in God is a beautiful thing. It sets us free to be a good stewards of all the things that God has given us. It allows us to give back to God in our sacrificial offering as we participate in the Eucharist. It says to God, "I have complete confidence that you will provide for me." What a great prayer!

Some people struggle with trust in God because our modern secular philosophies tell us that it is not rational. There is a constant battle between our faith and modern culture. Modern culture continually tries to separate us from our faith.

How is your trust in God?

glory or a chance to "show off." Rather, Jesus came simply to serve and to save.

We're just beginning Lent, our own "forty days in the desert." And during this holy time, we will take a deep look within, examine the ways we have been faithful, and the ways we have not; examine the ways we have stayed on path and the ways we have strayed; examine the way we have met the needs of others and the ways we have placed our own needs above those of others; examine the ways we have loved and the ways we have chosen to do something else.

Lent is the perfect time to take a long hard look at those very things, take a long hard honest look at our sins, no matter how difficult that may be. So that we can be better, and that we can be the beautiful, loving, kind, generous people God wants us to be.

That is what Lent is really all about.

Have a blessed Lent everyone.

"You shall not put the Lord your God to the test." – LUKE 4:12

St Joseph Family Novena –
Fri, Mar 11 to Sat, Mar 19
St John Apostle & Evangelist Church

sponsored by

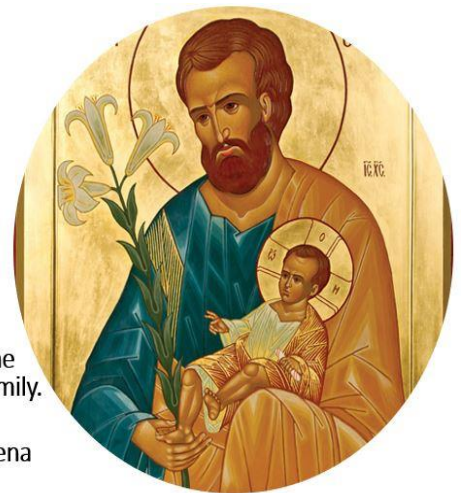

Knights of Columbus, Council 14663

Please join us for prayer & reflection

St. Joseph is a powerful patron. He is, as St John Paul II called him, the Guardian of the Redeemer. He humbly accepted his role as guardian, husband and father in the Holy Family. Therefore, St. Joseph's intercession has been sought for centuries.

St. Joseph was clearly very close to our Lord and so we come to him with this novena with a sense of humility because of his great humility.

There are actually a few different feast days for Saint Joseph, but March 19th has been most celebrated as his feast day in Western Christianity. But of course, you can pray a novena to him anytime.
