STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN REFLECTION (LUKE 9:28B - 36)

By The Catholic Stewardship Consultants

In last week's Gospel, we followed Jesus into the desert where He fasted and prayed. This week, He leads us up a mountain to witness His Transfiguration. Why both of these experiences?

He is preparing us to go with Him in a few short weeks to a hilltop – Golgotha – where He will lay down His life for our sake, and then finally to take us to an empty cave where He triumphed over sin and death once and for all. Jesus perfectly understands our humanity. He knows we need desert experiences – times of self-denial and testing – in order to arrive at mountain – top moments when we see and feel His glorious presence in our lives.

FR. ANTHONY'S STEWARDSHIP CORNER (GOD OWNS EVERYTHING)

As our personal relationship with God progresses, we come to the realization that being created by God has implications. If you are not your own, then all of the things that you "own" and all of the things that you have are not yours either. They are lent to you by God for a time.

As a steward, your duties include taking care of everything that he has given you. Everything means everything, including your time and talents, and physical assets. It even includes your physical body.

The US Catholic Bishops defined stewardship in Stewardship, a Disciples Response, as follows: "A Christian steward is one who receives God's gifts gratefully, cherishes them and tends them in an accountable manner, shares them in justice and love with others, and returns with increase to the Lord."

Fr. Anthony Roper

The purpose of these two types of experiences is summed up in the description of the Apostles who were with Jesus at that mountain-top experience in today's Gospel: "Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep, but becoming fully awake, they say his glory....."

The reason for all of our fasting and prayer and almsgiving during lent is to be reawakened to all God has done for humanity, and to all that He has done for each of us personally. It is all too easy to get lulled into complacency in our daily routines, to "sleepwalk" through life, getting up and getting ourselves out the door, going to work, returning home for dinner and dishes, meetings, or sports activities, and finally flopping on the couch to watch TV until bedtime. While there is nothing inherently sinful in this routine, as Christian stewards, we are called to so much more!

This lent, let us train ourselves, or more precisely, allow Him to train us to say "Yes" to His will and to offer our lives back to him in gratitude. In so doing, we, too, will become "transfigured." This is what it means to live fully awake; this is a stewardship way of life, and it is glorious indeed.

"Find out how much God has given you and from it take what you need; the remainder is needed by others." – SAINT AUGUSTINE

Our "Superstar" preschoolers have been filling their school days with many learning experiences. Storytelling and learning about different authors like Dr. Seuss captured their interest during "Read Across America" Day, understanding and celebrating Mardi Gras as they danced, wore their beaded necklaces, and indulged by eating the malassadas they made in class.

Studying about the planets (which was the learning focus in February), has led our preschoolers into discussions of the physical science; how the four (4) elements; land-lithosphere, air-atmosphere, water-hydrosphere, and the sun -heliosphere affects changes on planet Earth. Thus far, activities such as learning about the water cycle, observing cloud types, and observing rainbow colors through a prism will continue throughout the month.

SUPERSTARS GEAR-UP FOR LENT

The pretzel is a food commonly associated with the season of Lent and is known to be a Lenten "fasting" food. The "Superstar's Class" prepared for their Lenten journey by baking their pretzels. Each of them meticulously folded the ends of the bread dough into a pretzel shape to depict their "folding prayer arms". The children are reminded to pray daily!

Our helpful Superstars have begun to generously fill their "Rice Bowls" as part of their almsgiving.

Hina Matsuri - Happy Girl's Day!

Laughter and well wishes filled the classroom as we celebrated with a tea party and making our own Koshiki paper dolls.
