PASTOR'S CORNER

Mass Part One: Liturgy of the Word

Every Catholic Mass consists of two main parts: the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

The first part of the Mass, the Liturgy of the Word, starts with the procession and Introduction Rite. This is when we sing a hymn or say or chant an antiphon, make the sign of the Cross and are greeted by the bishop or priest. This is followed by the Penitential Rite. This is where we confess our sinfulness and /or pray, "Lord, Have Mercy." We then sing or recite the "Gloria," and the presider leads us in the Opening Prayer.

After the Opening Prayer, we sit and listen to God's Word in the Sacred Scriptures. At a typical Sunday Mass we'll have a first reading, usually from the Old Testament, a Responsorial Psalm, a second reading, usually from a New Testament letter, sing an Alleluia verse and then hear a reading from one of the Gospels.

After the readings comes the homily, sometimes called the sermon. From there we all profess our faith in the Creed, and finally, we offer up our prayers as a community of faith in the General Intercessions or Prayers of the Faithful. After the Liturgy of the Word, we begin the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN REFLECTION (LUKE 11: 1 – 13) BY CATHOLIC STEWARDSHIP CONSULTANTS

In our Gospel reading from Luke, some disciples of Jesus ask our Lord to teach them how to pray. Jesus instantly offers them the beautiful prayer which we, of course, call the Our Father.

The Our Father is truly a steward's prayer. In it, we call upon God in an intimate way, as Father. We ask that His will be done (not ours!) and that His kingdom come (not ours!). In other words, we remember that He is our Creator, everything is His, and our focus in life should be on His priorities, not our own. Then we ask Him to supply our needs (to give our daily bread), forgive our sins, and protect us from evil. That is, we proclaim our complete trust in His provision for us and mercy towards us. We, too, commit to extending mercy ourselves (as we forgive those who sin against us).

As we pray the words of the Our Father, we recognize this basic truth about ourselves and God: God is our Father, and we are beloved and infinitely blessed to be His children. This is the basis of a stewardship way of life.

At the end of the Gospel passage, Jesus encourages us to pursue a relationship with the Father: Ask Him, seek Him, knock on His door!

He can hardly wait to bless us, His children. Remember that this week, then go, be a blessing to others! Stewardship is just that simple.

SAINT IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA: SOLDIER FOR CHRIST

At the end of this week, we celebrate the feast of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the “Soldier for Christ.” While Martin Luther’s interior troubles plunged Europe into a maelstrom of controversy, Ignatius of Loyola set out on an extraordinary interior pilgrimage of grace. Taught directly by God, Ignatius offered the Church a new spirituality of devoted service to Christ and founded a religious order dedicated to evangelization, the Jesuits.
