PASTOR'S CORNER

The Penitential Rite

As Catholics, it's important that we celebrate the Eucharist with a clean heart. That's why at the beginning of each Mass we have the Penitential Rite. We take a moment of silence to call to mind our sins and ask for God's mercy and forgiveness. This is done in a few different ways.

We may repeat after the priest or deacon, "Lord have mercy, Christ, have mercy, Lord, have mercy." In this we ask pardon from all three persons of the Trinity. We may also say or sing "Kyrie eleison." This is Greek for "Lord, have mercy."

Finally, we may recite a longer prayer called the Confiteor, a Latin word which means "I confess," in which we say:

"I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord, our God."

The Penitential Rite ends with the prayer of the priest, "May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive our sins, and bring us to everlasting life."

In the Penitential Rite, our venial sins are forgiven. But this general confession of sin does not replace individual confession with a priest. We must always remember that if we have committed any mortal sins, we must make a sacramental confession before receiving the Eucharist.

STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN REFLECTION (LUKE 12: 32-48) BY CATHOLIC STEWARDSHIP CONSULTANTS

Whether you are just beginning your stewardship journey or have been living a stewardship way of life for years, today's readings invite us to ask ourselves an important question to ponder.

The question is this: "What do you treasure?" Of course, we all know the "right" answer: we treasure our faith, our family, and our friendships. But Jesus tells us in the Gospel passage from Luke how we can discover the real answer to this question. He says, "For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be."

To discern what we really treasure, we need to do a check on our hearts. We can each ask ourselves, "Where do I spend the majority of my energy? Where do I find my thoughts dwelling? How do I choose to spend my time when I find myself with a few spare moments? What do my spending habits reveal about what is important to me?"

As Christian stewards, we are called to live our lives in grateful response to all that God has given us. Do I recognize and treasure these gifts?

15 THINGS TO DO IN THE MIDST OF SUFFERING BY JEFF CAVINS

The Church celebrates the feast of St. Maximilian Kolbe this week. Kolbe, a Polish Catholic priest, fearlessly suffered the horrors of Auschwitz, where he was eventually martyred because of his faith. The life of this Saint reminds us that suffering is a mystery we all face at many points in our lives. In this talk, internationally known speaker Jeff Cavins shares his insights on this difficult topic and shows us how our suffering can become redemptive.
