Pastor's Corner

Aloha my brothers and sisters,

Last week, we reflected on what an active parishioner in a missionary-style Catholic parish looks like. This week, we turn to Scripture to understand what the Bible envisions missionary work to be.

The Bible presents missionary work as the joyful proclamation of God's love, rooted in Christ's Great Commission. It is more than sharing words—it is “enfleshing” the Gospel through holistic service, defending human dignity, and inviting all people into the sacramental life of the Church.

Grounded deeply in both the Old and New Testaments, the Catholic understanding of mission rests on several core biblical pillars:

- The Great Commission: In Matthew 28:19–20, Jesus commands His followers: “Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.” This reveals the universal scope of the Gospel.
- The “Sent” Nature of the Church: In John 20:21, Jesus says, “As the Father has sent Me, so I send you.” Mission is understood as an extension of God's own movement toward the world—embracing a servant's heart and participating in Christ's redemptive work.
- Word and Action: Scripture teaches that faith must be expressed through concrete charity and justice. James 2:15–16 reminds us that if a brother or sister lacks clothing or food, simply saying “go in peace” is not enough. Catholic missionary work therefore includes education, healthcare, and service to the poor.
- The Universal Vision: Revelation 7:9 offers the ultimate horizon of mission: a great multitude from “every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages” gathered in worship. This reflects a profound respect for all cultures while bringing the light of Christ to every people.

This biblical vision is anchored in the belief that the Church is missionary by her very nature, flowing from the mission of Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit.

In Christ,

Fr. Anthony Rapozo

MISSION / VISION STATEMENT: WE ARE A CATHOLIC CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY—

called to develop a deeper relationship with Christ. Such a relationship is fostered through active participation in: Word, Sacrament, Renewal Programs, Ministry/Service and other Spirit-led activities. We dedicate our time, talent, and treasure to install, in our parish community the basic building blocks of Christian living, to preach the Good News of Jesus Christ to all through our words, deeds, and lives.

†REST IN PEACE†

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

Exodus 19:2-6 You will be a kingdom of priests, a consecrated nation.

Romans 5:6-11 We have been reconciled to God through the death of his Son; we are saved by his life.

Matthew 9:36-20:8 He summoned his twelve disciples and sent them out.

Paul meditates upon God's great love for us. While we were still sinners, God reached out in love to us: Christ died for us. How unthinkable this is! As Paul says, you are not likely to die for a good person, let alone for someone who is unworthy. Yet, this is just what God has done. We are still, every one of us, reconciled in Christ. Now, this is the real good news. Everyone is already reconciled in Christ. It does not depend upon becoming worthy of it; it does not depend upon straightening out our lives. It comes as a totally free gift from God.

Shouldn't everybody have the chance to hear this good news? This is exactly our ministry as evangelizers. We are here to deliver this gospel to people in whatever way possible, in the hope that they can hear it and come to rejoice with us in God through our Lord Jesus Christ. We proclaim the gospel through our words, through our actions, through our values, through our very lives.

Second Reading: Romans 6:3-4, 8-11

Gospel: Matthew 10:37-42

Pope's June prayer intention: 'for the values of sports'

School of fraternity, peace, and encounter

He thanks the Lord for "the gift of sport, for those who glorify God through the exercise of their bodies, for the friendships born on the field, and the joy of playing as a team."

As Pope Leo recalls how the Lord teaches us "that in life, as in the game, no one is saved alone," the Holy Father insists we "need others to grow, to learn respect, to overcome our limits, and to celebrate together the victories we achieve."

Thus, Pope Leo prays that sport "may always be a school of fraternity, not of empty rivalry, a space of encounter, not exclusion, a path of peace, not violence."

Uniting people and growing closer to Christ

"May those who play, train or cheer," the Pope said, "discover in sport a universal language that brings cultures together, unites peoples, and sows respect, solidarity, and personal growth."

He also prays that every sport "become a parable of life lived with you, working with joy and effort, living with humility in defeat and with gratitude in the victory you offer in your Resurrection."

"May your Spirit," the Holy Father concluded, "never be lacking in us, making us one team, united with you to build communion and fraternity in history."

Support the Works of the Holy Father through the

Peter's Pence Collection

*Be a sign of

From his first appearance after his election in May 2025, Pope Leo XIV has called upon Catholics to live in peace and unity with one another within the Church and to share this invitation to peace and unity with the whole world. Throughout history, Catholics have shared Christ's mission with the world by proclaiming the Gospel and performing works of mercy that bring comfort to the poor and vulnerable.

For centuries, Catholics have joined in these works by supporting the Peter's Pence Collection, which helps to fund the Holy Father's mission to proclaim Christ's message in the world. Our gifts to the collection are "concrete signs of hope" that fulfill the two aims of Peter's Pence: "1) To support the Holy Father's mission, which extends throughout the entire world, from the proclamation of the Gospel to the promotion of integral human development, education, peace, and brotherhood among peoples: thanks also to the many activities of service carried out by the dicasteries, bodies and organs of the Holy See that assist him every day; and 2) To support the numerous charitable works in aid of people and families in difficulty, populations afflicted by natural disasters and wars, or who are in need of humanitarian assistance or support for development."

Apoye las obras del
Santo Padre a través de la

Colecta Peter's Pence Sea un signo de esperanza.

El papa León XIV, desde que apareció por primera vez luego de su elección en mayo del 2025, ha hecho un llamado a los católicos a vivir en paz y unidad los unos con los otros dentro de la Iglesia y a compartir esta invitación de paz y unidad con el mundo entero. A lo largo de la historia, los católicos han compartido con el mundo la misión de Cristo, proclamando el Evangelio y realizando obras de misericordia que les trae consuelo al pobre y al vulnerable.

Por siglos, los católicos se han unido a estas labores apoyando a la Colecta Peter's Pence, la cual ayuda a financiar la misión del Santo Padre de proclamar el mensaje de Cristo en el mundo. Nuestros donativos a la colecta son "signos concretos de esperanza" que cumplen los dos objetivos de Peter's Pence: "(1) Sostener la misión del Santo Padre que se extiende al mundo entero con el anuncio del Evangelio, la promoción del desarrollo humano integral, la educación, la paz y la fraternidad entre los pueblos, gracias también a las muchas actividades de servicio realizadas por los dicasterios, entes y organismos de la Santa Sede que lo asisten cada día; y (2) Sostener las numerosas obras caritativas en favor de las personas, las familias en dificultad y las poblaciones afectadas por calamidades naturales y guerras, o que necesitan asistencia o ayuda al desarrollo."

Journeying in Faith Together

Are you, or someone you know, interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith?

Have you felt called to become part of the Catholic Church? Do you have questions about God, Jesus, or the Church? Were you baptized Catholic but never had the opportunity to learn more about the faith?

If so, we invite you to join us for OCIA!

OCIA is a journey of faith for those who desire to learn more about the Catholic Church.

We're inviting:

- Individuals who are not baptized
- Those baptized in another Christian tradition who wish to become Catholic
- Baptized Catholics who have not received further faith formation

Come pray, reflect, explore, and discuss the teachings of the Holy Catholic Church, and grow spiritually within a supportive and joyful community.

Celebrate Our 55th Anniversary: Rooted in Faith, Growing in Hope

August 1, 2026 – Multicultural Mass and Potluck Dinner in the OCC

We invite the various cultures that make up our wonderful parish to wear their traditional attire during the entrance procession at the beginning of Mass, along with presenting a gift that reflects what their culture would offer to God.

This Mass will be followed by a parish-wide potluck dinner in the OCC, where we encourage everyone to bring dishes to share from their respective cultures.

August 15, 2026 – Thanksgiving Mass and Decades of Faith Gala in the OCC

This will be our main celebration, during which we thank God for guiding our parish over the past 55 years here in Mililani. We hope to have the different decades of our parish represented by parishioners, symbolizing the various age groups and generations that make up our diverse community.

This will be followed by a catered reception dinner, where we will share the history of our parish and its accomplishments with one another and with the greater Mililani community, whom we are also inviting to this event.

Voices of the Parish

We are inviting parishioners to help us create short videos (through brief interviews) to share their thoughts, experiences, memories, or meaningful moments in our parish. These videos will be shown during the Decades of Faith Gala on August 15, 2026.

Wall of Remembrance

We are seeking photos that we can copy and include in our Parish Wall of Remembrance, which our committee is creating for this special celebration. We welcome construction photos of any church buildings, images from liturgical celebrations, or anything that reflects the life of our parish over the past 55 years.
