YOUCAT! A New Catechism Part 2

In this brief second part of YOUCAT, I wish to offer some more interesting features of the new youth catechism. You will also find some useful Internet links at the end of this catechesis.

The set-up of YOUCAT is such that it encourages people to explore deeper meanings of their faith together, encourages the use of e-mail, Facebook, Twitter and other means of personal exchange wherein they can discuss their faith, learn from YOUCAT and share with one another the joy of being disciples of Christ, members of His Body, one with all of us in the Church — pope, bishops, priests and deacons, consecrated women and men and faith-filled lay men and women.

Pope Benedict XVI noted that some thought there would be little interest but he was convinced otherwise. Young people today, he has said, are not superficial. They want to know the meaning of life. They are searching for answers that will disclose to them their destiny. YOUCAT contains materials that point out new possibilities for them and give them a fuller view of life as transformed by Jesus Christ.

The appealing graphic format includes Questions-and-Answers, highly-readable commentary, summary definitions of key terms, Bible citations and inspiring and thought-provoking quotes from Saints and others in the margins. What's more, YOUCAT is keyed to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, so people can go deeper. It explains:

- What Catholics believe and why (doctrine)
- How Catholics celebrate the mysteries of the faith (sacraments)
- How Catholics are to live (moral life)
- How they should pray (prayer and spirituality)

The questions are direct and honest, even at times tough; the answers straightforward, relevant, and compelling. YOUCAT will likely become the "go-to" place for young people to learn the truth about the Catholic faith.

VISION STATEMENT

We are called to develop a deeper relationship with Christ. Such a relationship is fostered through active participation in: the Sacraments, the Word, Renewal programs, ministry/service, fellowship and other Spirit-led activities. We will dedicate our time, talent and treasure to install in our Parish community these basic building blocks of Christian living, to live out the Lord's commands and to preach the Good News to all through our words, deeds and lives.

Next Sunday's Scripture Readings: July 7
Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C

Readings: Is 66:10-14; Ps 66: 1-3, 4-5, 6-7, 16,20;
Gal 6:14-18; Lk 10:1-12, 17-20

First Reading: Isaiah 66:10-14

In this passage, it is the Lord who speaks, describing in metaphoric language the relationship that will exist between the restored city and its inhabitants. The author described the loving care this relationship will provide in the image of a nursing mother feeding her inhabitants. Like a mother the city will comfort them.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 66: 1-3, 4-5, 6-7, 16,20

This Sunday's psalm begins with praise and ends with individual expression of thanksgiving. The response we use is a call to all the earth to praise God: "Let all the earth cry out to God with joy."

Second Reading: Galatians 6:14-18

Paul begins and ends this passage with reference to suffering. He refers to the death of Jesus and then to his own bodily suffering. Thus Paul is happy to participate in the Cross of Jesus Christ "through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world." This is Paul's way of showing his own participation in the suffering of Jesus Christ. Just as Jesus met opposition, Paul too has had his own share of opposition for the Gospel.

Gospel Reading: Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

The Gospel passage this Sunday is about Jesus sending the seventy two disciples. Their mission is symbolic of the ultimate mission to all the nations of the world. Jesus uses two metaphors to represent the mission: 1) the harvests and 2) the lambs among wolves. Harvest indicates the readiness of the world for the ministry of the missionaries. It suggests that planting and growing have been accomplished. The disciples only go for the harvest. The second metaphor adds a sobering tone to the picture. Although the harvest is ready, harvesting itself can be a dangerous task. The field of the ministry can be threatening and the harvesters may be vulnerable at times due to many factors. The idea of carrying no money, sack and sandals carries the demand for travelling "light" because extra baggage will be an obstacle to accomplishing the missionary task.

"If our prayer is resolutely united with that of Jesus, in trust and boldness as children, we obtain all that we ask in his name, even more than any particular thing: the Holy Spirit himself, who contains all gifts."(CCC 2742)
