NEW PARISHIONERS & VISITORS, WELCOME TO OUR PARISH!

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

BY: MSGR. JOHN S. MBINDA

"In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit". This prayer leads us into the mystery we celebrate this Sunday, the Most Holy Trinity. In the second reading of this Sunday, we find one of the optional greetings used at the beginning of each Mass. This greeting is an excellent synthesis of the mystery of the Holy Trinity. "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you" (2 Cor. 13:14). The Solemnity of the Holy Trinity helps us to affirm our central truth and faith in One God: the Father (who creates), the Son (who redeems) and the Holy Spirit (who sanctifies, unifies and reconciles).

In his teaching, Jesus gradually reveals to his disciples the mystery of being totally united with the Father. One is reminded of the conversation between Jesus and Philip in St. John's Gospel, where Philip wanted Jesus to show them the Father. Jesus replied to him: "You must believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me" (Jn. 14:11). The conversation with Nicodemus in the Gospel this Sunday implies that love prompted the Father to send the Son, the bearer of the Holy Spirit, the source of life. This communion with the Father is the goal of our extraordinary mission on earth.

The Holy Trinity is a life of communion to be lived, shared and celebrated liturgically. Therefore, we need to go beyond talking about love, communion, sharing and putting that into practice by being instruments of reconciliation, mercy and communion. As one bishop put it jokingly, the reason why God in creating us does not put us directly into heaven, is because if He did so, we would mess life up there! Our life here on earth is a time to practice our stewardship in concrete ways by sharing, healing and living in communion with the people God has given us.

The central message may be summed up in three points. 1) The solemnity of the Holy Trinity is a model of life of communion in God to be lived and imitated; 2) We are challenged to be instruments of reconciliation, healing and communion; 3) To be such instruments, we need to be nourished by prayer and scripture, for example in the family so we can grow into closer communion with one another.

PASTOR'S CORNER

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

"We believe in one God..." Trinity Sunday, officially called "The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity," is one of the few celebrations of the Liturgical Year that commemorates a confession of faith and doctrine rather than a person or event. On Trinity Sunday, we celebrate and honor the eternal one God: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit whom we confess in the Nicene Creed. Trinity Sunday is celebrated the Sunday after Pentecost. Eastern Churches have no tradition of Trinity Sunday, arguing that they celebrate the Trinity every Sunday.

From the earliest time, the Trinity was one of the most fascinating - and controversial teachings. The Trinity is described as a "mystery." By mystery the Church does not mean a riddle, but rather the Trinity is a reality above our human understanding, but ultimately a mystery we must embrace in faith, celebrate in worship and imitate its life of communion. This mystery becomes part of us as we pray it in the Nicene Creed every Sunday. Someone has said that mystery is not a wall to run up against, but an ocean in which to swim!

The Trinity is the belief that God is one in essence, but distinct in persons. The Greek word for person means "that which stands on its own," or "individual reality," and does not mean the persons of the Trinity are three beings. Therefore, we believe that the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit are distinct from one another (not divided though), yet completely united in will and essence. How can this be? Well, think of the sight of two eyes. The eyes are distinct, yet one and undivided in their sight. The Russian artist, Andrei Rublev in the fifteenth century depicted the Holy Trinity in an icon that shows the three angels whom Abraham hosted at Mamre. The angels are seated around a white table with their eyes and fingers focused on a chalice shaped bowl. (cf. Gen 18:1-8)

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY, JUNE 18, 2017

First Reading: Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14b-16a

In the first reading, Moses reminds the Israelites of how God has cared for them during their pilgrimage through the desert. But the Lord also let them endure suffering in order to test their faithfulness to his covenant. In the midst of all the trials, the Lord sustained them with manna because of their faithfulness to him. That is why the reading ends with a plea from Moses urging the people not to forget the Lord who brought them from Egypt and cared for them in every way.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 147:12-13, 14-15, 19-20

These verses from psalm 147 are a song of praise to God for his goodness to his people. Response: "Praise the Lord, Jerusalem."

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 10:16-17

Paul in these two verses highlights the fact that sharing the one loaf and the one cup of the Eucharist makes us one with Jesus Christ. The communion signified and brought about in the Eucharist must permeate every aspect of our lives.

Gospel: John 6:51-58

This passage is part of the teaching of Jesus about himself as "living bread of life." The bread that Jesus gives is his flesh. The word "flesh" is unmistakable in its concrete meaning. Jesus in these verses is no longer speaking metaphorically of "food" as in earlier verses: "I am the bread of life." He calls his disciples to participate intimately in the incarnation itself. The word "incarnation" means "becoming flesh," and Jesus' words here recall the beginning of John's Gospel: "The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us" (1:14). Therefore these words are not "merely symbolic," but neither are they merely literal. They are symbolic in the fullest sense of the word. To eat his body and to drink his blood is a sign of intimacy; of union with Christ's humanity and divinity in the sacrament of the Eucharist. It is also the means to that union. That is the meaning of what Jesus teaches when he says that, "whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him."
