We see Jesus' love and compassion and healing power on full display in today's Gospel Reading from Mark. A leper comes to him and begs to be healed. Jesus, moved with pity, stretches out his hand and heals the man. And then Jesus tells him something somewhat puzzling, "See that you tell no one anything . . ."

Of course, the man does exactly what many of us would do --- he immediately tells everyone. After all, this is a "miracle", an unmistakable action of God in their midst. And the former leper wants to make sure everyone knows about it.

Jesus knew that if word got out that he could heal leprosy (or any other disease) he would be inundated with people coming to him from everywhere.

We are a Catholic Christian Community, called to develop a deeper relationship with Christ. Such a relationship is fostered through active participation in:
Word, Sacrament, Renewal Programs, Ministry/Service, and other Spirit-led activities.

We dedicate our time, talent and treasure to install, in our parish community, the basic building blocks of Christian living, to preach the Good News of Jesus Christ to all through our words, deeds, and lives.

Is that the only reason Jesus told the man to keep quiet?

My guess is that Jesus didn't want his message, his promises to be reduced to simply what he could do for people from the "outside", the "flashy" sorts of miracles that get all the attention. He wanted to make sure that people realized that the real "miracles" he wanted to "perform" were on the "inside", miracles of the heart, soul, and spirit.

The miracles within each of us are really what Jesus died to make possible. The power of the resurrection allows the hardened heart to soften, the cruel heart to become kind and compassionate, the selfish heart to become generous, the vindictive heart to become forgiving, and the sinful heart to be washed clean --- enabling us to once again start down a different path, a journey into the arms of our loving God for all eternity.

I don't know about you, but if all of that happened within me --- that would be a miracle!

So, let's let God do precisely that --- not just today, but every moment of our lives. And it's ok --- God gives us permission to tell everyone.

Note from Fr. Steve.

"We are very aware that a growing number of couples are choosing not to be married in the Catholic Church. These couples include people reading this in our parish, adult children of our parishioners, other family members whom you know, personal friends and work colleagues, and your own neighbors. There are a number of these couples who would love to have their marriage blessed by the Catholic Church. We would be grateful if we can help these wonderful couple fulfill their wish and dream.

The sacredness of marriage does not go away. As a matter of fact it needs to be celebrated! We would like to be a part of that". If this might be your situation or the situation of couples you might know, please encourage them to contact Domi in the parish office by phone or email. We will try our best to make it happen!

Due to the ongoing COVID-19 coronavirus pandemic, Bishop Larry Silva extends the dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday and Holy Day Mass to all the people of the Diocese of Honolulu and all visitors to the Diocese of Honolulu through noon on Holy Thursday, April 1, 2021, which marks the end of Lent.

All who are able to attend Sunday Mass without putting themselves or others at serious risk of infection, are encouraged to do so, but are not obliged to do so. The faithful are encouraged to keep the Lord's Day holy. Some ways to do this include: Reading the Scriptures of the day, especially the Gospels, praying with your families, reading inspiring spiritual books, following the Mass via available media and to joining yourself to the sacrifice of the Mass by making an act of spiritual communion.
