NEW PARISHIONERS & VISITORS, WELCOME TO OUR PARISH!

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

Deacon Romeo Ganibe

In today's Gospel reading, it is astonishing to realize that Jesus selected us to be his friends. "It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you." We have been chosen to share our lives with Jesus as he shares his with us. It's a connection of joy. The good news, Jesus says, is a joy for both of us. "I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete." But more than that, Jesus says that because he chose us, we are sent "to go and bear great fruit that will remain." Our role as Christians is to live out the teachings of Jesus. "Love one another."

What is our part in bringing love to those in pain? His commandment to us is simple: "Love one another." He doesn't tell us how to vote or, how to earn money. Just love one another, and "remain in me."

How do we take up this mantle he has given us? How can we shape our lives to follow Jesus' example of loving more closely?

Maybe praying for or working to help the poor and marginalized around us. Perhaps it just means for us to lighten up in our own lives and remain in his love. It could be as simple as being kinder, merciful and compassionate to those around us. We can stop being judgmental. Not to assume that our way is the correct way, that our beliefs are true, no matter how ardently we believe them.

We accept the fierce love of Jesus by following his request for us to go and bear fruit that will remain. His final words to us echo in our lives: "Love one another." We bear fruit every day by sharing the love we have been given and carrying it throughout our days and throughout our lives.
