STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN REFLECTION

By: Catholic Stewardship Consultants

Our Psalm today, "The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy," sheds light on our glorious Gospel reading about the healing of the blind man, Bartimaeus.

We can learn a lot from Bartimaeus when it comes to our own personal relationships with Jesus. Many of us struggle with something from which we need healing — physical blindness, illness, addiction, bad habits, anger, sin. In our weakness, do we confidently cry out to Jesus knowing that He will help us?

Oftentimes we begin to, but then a voice in our thoughts tells us to doubt and encourages us to stop trying, like the crowd in our Gospel. Although that voice is persistent and strong, we are called to cry out all the more. If Jesus can hear one voice in a crowd of many, then He can hear our direct prayer to Him in our hearts.

Our Gospel story closes with the miraculous moment when Bartimaeus is healed. The conversation with Jesus was simple. Jesus asked Bartimaeus what he would like Him to do. This man, blind for who knows how many years, desired sight. Jesus responded, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." He was healed and continued to follow Christ.

There was not much that Bartimaeus had to do to become healed. All he needed was his undoubting faith.

Whatever it is that we are struggling with in this life, all Jesus asks of us is to have faith in Him. As a result, we will remain steadfast in our relationship with Christ and will have the strength to keep going. And although we might not be healed in this life, Jesus still hears our confident cries. And through our faith we will surely be healed in the next.

FATHER ANTHONY'S STEWARDSHIP CORNERAloha!

As part of our annual stewardship education process, I am publishing a series of stewardship bulletin articles that explore some of the key concepts of Christian Stewardship. The bulletin articles are short but the subject matter is important. If you have questions or if you want additional information, please feel free to contact me.

Number 4: THE GIFT OF TIME

God has given each of us equal amount of time each day. God has given all of us a different number of days. The Christian Steward recognizes this time as a gift and treats with:

- GRATITUDE
- RESPONSIBILITY
- ACCOUNTABILITY
- JUSTICE
- LOVE

We like to spend some of our time hanging out with good friends. As a disciple, we spend some of our time hanging out with our good friend, God. We do this in a number of ways including prayer, attending Mass and Adoration. Giving back to God, some of the time that has been given us is one sign of a steward.

POWER OF THE HOLY MASS

Commit to attending Mass more often.

At the hour of death, the Holy Masses you have heard devoutly will be your greatest consolation.

Every Mass will go with you to Judgement and will plead for pardon for you.

By every Mass, you can diminish the temporal punishment due to your sins, more or less, according to your fervor.

By devoutly assisting at Holy Mass, you render the greatest homage possible to the Sacred Humanity of Our Lord.

Through the Holy Sacrifice, Our Lord Jesus Christ supplies for many of your negligence's and omissions.

He forgives you all the venial sins which you are determined to avoid. He forgives your unknown sins which you never confessed.

The power of Satan over you is diminished.

By piously hearing Holy Mass, you afford the Souls in Purgatory the greatest possible relief.

Through Holy Mass, you are preserved from many dangers and misfortunes which would otherwise have befallen you.

You shorten your Purgatory through the Mass.

Through the Holy Mass, you are blessed in your temporal good and affairs.

When you hear Holy Mass, offer it devoutly to Almighty God in honors of a particular Saint or Angel, thanking God for the favors bestowed upon him; then, you afford that Saint and Angel a new degree of honor, joy and happiness, and draw his special love and protection on yourself.

Each time you assist at Holy Mass, besides other intentions, offer it also in honor of the Saint of the day.

For each Mass heard with devotion, Our Lord sends a saint to comfort us at death. ~revelation of Christ to St. Gertrude the Great."

Once, St. Theresa was overwhelmed with God's Goodness and asked our Lord, "How can I thank you?" Our Lord replied, "ATTEND ONE MASS."

The Blessed Virgin Mary once told Her faithful servant Alain: "My Son so loves those who assist at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass that, if it were necessary He would die for them as many times as they've heard Masses."

"The Holy Mass would be of greater profit if people had it offered in their lifetime, rather than having it celebrated for the relief of their souls after death." ~ Pope Benedict XV ~

Great doctor of the Church, St Anselm, declared that a single Mass offered for oneself during life may be worth more than a thousand celebrated for the same intention after death St. Leonard of Port Maurice supports this statement by saying that one Mass before death may be more profitable than many after it.

"When we receive Holy Communion, we experience something extraordinary - a joy, a fragrance, a well-being that thrills the whole body and causes it to exalt." ~Saint Jean Vianney

The celebration of Holy Mass is as valuable as the death of Jesus on the cross." ~ Saint Thomas Aquinas ~

"If we really understood the Mass, we would die of joy." ~ Saint Jean Vianney ~

"There is nothing so great as the Eucharist. If God had something more precious, He would have given it to us." ~Saint Jean Vianney ~

"It would be easier for the world to survive without the sun than to do without Holy Mass. ~St Pio of Pietrelcina (Padre Pio), stigmatic priest ~

"When we have been to Holy Communion, the balm of love envelops the soul as the flower envelops the bee." ~Saint Jean Vianney ~

"The heavens open and multitudes of angels come to assist in the Holy Sacrifices of the Mass." ~ Saint Gregory ~

"The angels surround and help the priest when he is celebrating Mass." ~ St Augustine ~

"When Mass is being celebrated, the sanctuary is filled with countless angels who adore the Divine Victim immolated on the altar." ~St John Chrysostom ~

Respect Life: "I would now like to say a special word to women who have had an abortion. The Church is aware of the many factors which may shattering decision. The wound in your heart may not yet have healed. ...
